

Please do not weaken these laws. Even though I signed up for the Do Not Call list, I STILL GET ANNOYING TELEMARKETING CALLS. If you weaken this law, we will be bombarded again. My home time is precious - my son needs my attention for homework, and my time as I am a working mother. Telemarketing calls just disrupt home life.

Thanks for listening,
Annette Beauvais